LIST OF PRESIDENTS
This list of CASSAR presidents is based upon documents published by the Sons of Revolutionary Sires (SRS) and the California Society of the Sons of the American Revolution (CASSAR). These documents are considered primary sources when other non-societal literature or articles disagree.

The numerical sequence is determined from the date of organization of both SRS and CASSAR. SRS documents state the SRS was “fully and completely organized on the 4th of July, 1876” and lists General Albert M. Winn as its first president. Similarly, early CASSAR documents state CASSAR was “Organized March 22, 1890” and lists Colonel Adolphus S. Hubbard as first in secession. The method used in these pages maintains harmony with those existing documents circulated by former CASSAR presidents during the second half of the 20th century. A sampling of these documents is reproduced as an Appendix at the end of this booklet.

PROVISIONAL, TEMPORARY PRESIDENTS
On October 22, 1875, a meeting was held in the San Francisco office of Dr. James L. Cogswell, where, among others, Dr. Peter W. Randle was present. After due consideration, a plan was devised at this meeting for the institution and organization of a society composed of the descendants of Revolutionary War patriots.

Future documents would be published, one of which was an 1893 CASSAR publication recognizing Dr. Peter W. Randal as the Provisional President for the period beginning October 22, 1875 and continuing through July 4, 1876. This formal recognition was printed in regular CASSAR publications at least through 1910. However, after the death of former President A. S. Hubbard in January 1913, Dr. James L. Cogswell, sole survivor of that October 1875 meeting, began to receive recognition in CASSAR documents as having fulfilled this role. This printed recognition continued until Dr. Cogswell’s death in 1921. Therefore, special acknowledgement is given in this document to both gentlemen in recognition of the valuable roles both performed in the formation of the Sons of Revolutionary Sires.

NATIONAL OFFICE OF PRESIDENT GENERAL
As of April 2011, two presidents of the California Society have been elected to the National Office of President General. The first was the 41st CASSAR President, Howard Cortland Rowley, who was elected the 40th NSSAR President General in 1929. The second was the 84th CASSAR President, Calvin Ellsworth Chunn, Ph.D., who was elected to two consecutive terms, serving the National Society as its 88th and again as its 89th President General in 1978 and 1979.

HONORARY NSSAR PRESIDENT GENERALS
The National Society early recognized the services of the California Society, by the adoption of, at the first National Congress, at Louisville, KY, April 30, 1890, the following resolution:

Whereas, The Society of the Sons of the American Revolution was first organized in the State of California on the Fourth of July, 1876; and

Whereas, To Colonel A. S. Hubbard, of the California Society, is due. in a large degree, the credit of organizing that Society, and, in a still greater degree, the credit of maintaining that Society through trials which would have discouraged a less patriotic man; now, therefore,

Resolved, That in the publication of the names of the Presidents-General of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, the name of Colonel A. S. Hubbard be hereafter included.

Resolved, That the Secretary General be, and is hereby, instructed to inform Colonel A. S. Hubbard of the honor which this Congress has conferred upon him.

At the third National Congress, at New York City, April 30, 1892, on motion of Mr. Henry Hall, Historian General, it placed on record the following tribute to the memory of the late General Albert M. Winn:

Resolved, That the name of A. M. Winn, first President of the California Society, shall hereafter appear in the roll of Past Presidents-General of this Society.

The 53rd CASSAR president, Harold Lee Putnam, instituted the Pledge to the SAR in California in 1938, which was later adopted by the National Society. President Putman originated the Minuteman and Patriot Medals and was elected Honorary Past President General upon his retirement in 1966, making him the third California Society member to be so recognized. At the 77th Annual Congress in Columbus, Ohio, President Putnam was presented a specially stuck gold Patriot Medal in recognition of his having conceived the award and being responsible for its design.

SONS OF REVOLUTIONARY SIRES.

The descendants of patriots of the Revolution have formed a society in San Francisco, and organized by the choice of Gen. A. M. Winn for President. The roll already contains the names of eighty members. The objects of the society are stated to be to unite the descendants of revolutionary patriots who took part in the American Revolution and maintained the independence of the United States; to promote social intercourse, mental improvement, and mutual benefit of its members; to organize auxiliaries, equal branches and representative branches at such times and places as the society may determine; to purchase such property as may be necessary for meeting-rooms, library, museum, and other necessities of such an association. The society also proposes to collect historical relics and traditions, and make a tangible record of them, and to record a biographical sketch of ancestral line, pertaining to each member, showing from whom descended, and giving all important events connected with the families.

SOCIETY OF

Sons of the American Revolution,

CALIFORNIA SOCIETY.

The Society of the Sons of Revolutionary Sires organized in San Francisco in 1876, and since been in continuous and successful operation, has grown into a National Society now styled Society of Sons of the American Revolution.

We transmit herewith a copy of the address issued by the National organization, with the request that you will give it such public notice as you can, conveniently, and invite any person who is descended from an ancestor who assisted, while acting in any of the following capacities, in establishing American Independence during the war of the Revolution, to become a member of the Society, by communicating with the California Society of San Francisco.

A military or naval officer, a soldier or a sailor.

An official in the service of any one of the Thirteen Original States or Colonies.

An official in the service of the United States or colonies.

A recognized patriot who rendered material service to the cause of Independence.

Col. A. S. Hubbard, County Clerk's Office, New City Hall, is the President of the California Society, and Col. J. King, 329 Frost Street, Assistant Secretary of the National Society.

A copy of this address has been sent to the President of every Republic on earth, with the suggestion that Societies of the descendants of the men, who in their country established independence, shall be formed with the idea that we will annually exchange addresses, possibly send visiting delegates to each other's National Convention, and in time hold an International Congress with delegates elected from the National Society to every Republic in the world.

To my Compatriot Past Presidents of the California Society, SAR:

This last year has seen the passing of three of the twenty past Presidents that were living when I began my term as president last April. Our senior Past President and Honorary Past President General Harold Lee Putnam passed away on September 5, 1979. He was the 53rd California Society President having served 1938-1939. In the last week of February our 66th President, Brig. Gen. Charles Douglas Yevelton Ostrom, Sr., who served 1952-1953 passed on. On March 11 of this year we lost our 83rd President, Ward Burgess Jenkins who was our leader in 1973-1974. This leaves 17 past presidents until I join your ranks on May 3rd. Our Senior is now 58th President Arthur L. Scott. Sr. served from 1943-1945. Our number 2 is now Carl Noble Helmick, Sr., 66th President who held office 1954-1955.

On assuming office last April I asked Past President Richard E. Sweet (86th 1976-1977) to correspond with you all and see if you, or most of you, could come to a breakfast on Saturday morning, May 3rd at the Annual convention of SAR in Sacramento at the Mansion Inn at 16th & H Streets at 7:30 A.M. We will go from breakfast at 9:00 directly to the meeting in the same hotel. This breakfast is now definite. May Bud Scott, Senior Past President; Dick Sweet, Liaison Officer to Past Presidents and I, your present President, join in inviting you to be with us at that time.

May God be with you all. I am fraternal and patriotically yours for America and the SAR.

LATE BULLETIN

At press time an important day was shaping up on July 90 at Santa Barbara where that chapter was to host a joint meeting of Central Coast, Gen. Patton and Santa Barbara Chapters. Most state officers will attend. State Pres. Hawkins will speak at the noon luncheon. State budget and format committees also will meet there. All compatriots and ladies are invited.
